

VERMONT INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

Vergennes, Sept. 18—On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. S. A Andrews gave up their position as superintendent and matron of the Industrial School, offices that they have filled very satisfactorily to the interests of the institution and with great credit to themselves for nearly 14 years.

The successors of Mr. and Mr and Mrs. Andrews are Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ingalls of Hyde Park. Mr Ingalls is a native of Berkshire, where he attenued the common school and afterward the Johnson Normalschool, class of '90. From there he attended the Edmunds high school of Burlington, class of '92, and then entered the University of Vermont, graduating in the class of '96. For the past six years he has been principal of Lamoille Central Academy at Hyde Park.
