Textbooks and course materials

- Al-Kitaab: A textbook for Beginning Arabic: Part III, by Brustad, Al-Batal & Al-Tonsi. Includes DVDs.
- Arabic-English dictionary by Hans Wehr.
- Supplementary materials prepared by the instructor.
- Course website, accessible via Segue.

Objectives of the course

- This is the third and final book in Al-Kitaab series, and it is designed for the advanced level. It has the same objectives as in Part II, and will follow the same methods for learning Arabic as a second language. Here's a reminder of the objectives:

Objectives of the course

1. Read a range of styles in Arabic, from formal to informal and from journalist to expository.
2. With economic and intelligent use of a dictionary, understand texts of general interest.
3. Use context and grammar to identify the form and guess the meaning of unfamiliar words.
4. Initiate and sustain discussion on topics of general interest.

Objectives of the course

4. Understand simple conversations in Egyptian Arabic.
5. Understand the main points of lectures and media programs on familiar topics.
6. Be able to write essays and opinion pieces on topics you have studied.
7. Read, write, and speak with increasing grammatical accuracy.
8. Identify a range of important figures and ideas in Arabic literary and cultural history.

Course Requirements

Course requirement	Percentage
Attendance & Participation	10%
Language Table	5%
3 Movie reports + 2 Arabic House events	5%
Homework assignments	20%
Quizzes	10%
Oral Presentations	5%
Written Essay + Oral Presentation	15%
Midterm and Final Exams	30%

Attendance and Participation (10%)

- You are expected to attend classes regularly. Please do your best NOT to come to class late.
- A class absence is only excused if it is accompanied by a note from your Commons' Dean or a physician.
- Excused or unexcused, if you know you'll be missing a class, please do notify me before or after the class.

Attendance and Participation (10%)

- This is a student-centered class, so participation is a key component of classroom activities.
- You are expected to come prepared for class activities (this means checking the syllabus page online, studying the indicated vocabulary and grammar, doing the assigned readings in the textbook, and actually participating in pair or group work). That said; please do not skip class if you are not fully prepared.
- You will also be asked to go to relevant events that take place on campus. Announcements for these will be made in due time both by e-mail and in class.

Language Tables (5%)

- Attending language tables is another course requirement. Each student is required to go to the language table once a week. Missing one table means missing 0.5%. Students will sign up for these tables during the first week of classes, and start attending them in the second week. You will be notified by Suzi, our TA, with your language table schedule.

Movie screenings and Arabic House events (5%)

- There will be six movie screenings this semester. You are required to go to THREE of them, and write a one-page report on every movie. The report is due on the Monday following the movie screening.
- Dates for the screenings are as follows:
2/18 , 3/4 , 3/11 , 4/1 , 4/15 , 4/22 (all Wednesdays)
- All screenings are in MBH 220, starting at 7pm.

Movie screenings and Arabic House events (5%)

- You are also required to go to at least TWO Arabic House events. Here's the schedule:
- The tea hour schedule at the Arabic House:
2/11 , 3/4 , 3/18 , 4/8 , 4/29
- There's a photo contest on 2/25.
- There's a Henaa night on Friday 4/17.

Homework Assignments (20%)

- Homework assignments are an integral part of this class and are crucial to help you fully understand the material and improve your proficiency in the different language skills as well as in learning new vocabulary and grammar.
- Assignments include drills assigned from the textbook as well as any other work that I assign, e.g., in-class role-play activities.

Homework Assignments

- There will be written assignments assigned at the end of each session and due at the beginning of the next class (unless otherwise indicated). You are expected to turn in these assignments on time.
- A late assignment will be subject to a 10% delay penalty if turned in on the next day it is due.
- Assignments turned in later than that are subject to a 20% delay penalty as long as I have not discussed the solutions in class.
- Needless to say, you cannot turn in any assignment if I already discussed the solutions in class.

Homework Assignments

- You are encouraged to study and work on homework assignments together, with the stipulation that everyone must submit her/his own individual work.
- Please hand in your homework on a separate sheet of paper. Make sure to skip lines and leave some blank margins for me to write comments on your answers. Also, please turn in "neat" work. Sloppy work is easily detected and annoys your grader.
- For each assignment please include the number of the assignment as well as the number of the exercise (if it is from the textbook).

Take-home exams (10%)

- There will be FOUR quizzes. These exams are meant to test your understanding of the materials that we cover in class, including vocabulary and grammar.

Oral presentations (5%)

- Each student is required to do a number of oral presentations during the semester. Presentations will be assigned as the semester unfolds.

Research paper + Oral Presentation (15%)

- Each student is required to submit a five-page typed paper on a topic that relates to the Arab and/or Islamic world, or the Middle East.
- You should notify me with your topic by March 16th so I can approve it. You should also submit a first draft of the paper on April 10th. The final version of the paper is due on the final day of classes, May 8th.
- You will also need to do an oral presentation of your paper in class in the final week of classes.
- I will send reminders as these deadlines approach.

Exams (30%)

- Exams:
There will be two exams: a mid-term exam, on March 18th, and a final exam, on May 11th. Each exam is worth 15% of your overall grade. The format of each exam will be announced in class in due time.

Honor Code

- Remember that the honor code is in effect in this class. Submitting work that is not your own, or that you did not participate in doing, is a violation of that code. If you have any questions about the code, please ask me, or check the following link on the college's website:
<http://www.middlebury.edu/academics/acadinfo/honcode/statement.htm>

Grading

- I will follow the following system in assigning your letter grades:
95%+ is A
from 90%+ to 95% is A-
from 87%+ to 90% is B+
from 83%+ to 87% is B
from 80%+ to 83% is B-
from 75%+ to 80% is C+
from 70%+ to 75% is C
from 65%+ to 70% is C-
from 50%+ to 65% is D
50% and under is F.
