ESCAPED INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL BOYS CAUGHT

(Special to the Free Press)

RUTLAND, Nov. 7.—Millard Bassino of Springfield, Mass., 19, and Lewis White of New Hampshire, are at the county jail here waiting to be taken back to the Vermont Industrial school at Vergennes, from which they escaped Thursday night, getting as far as the New York State line in Benson, 50 miles, before being arrested by Deputy Sheriff Darwin E. Deldon of Benson yesterday.

They made their get-away by taking a horse and wagon and an automobile. They broke a hasp from a barn door in Vergennes and took a horse and buggy belonging to William Trudeau, the officers allege. This they drove some distance, but they abandoned it, as they were in the car when arrested.
