

There are other State administrative workers. In New York City, Negroes are on the staff of every Division and Department of the Works Progress Administration. There are, of course, a great many clerical employees on these staffs. Michigan reports 11, Colorado 4, Minnesota 1.

(An office boy.) One District in Oklahoma reports an administrative worker.

Administrative employees in the Federal Works Progress Administration are as follows:

- Alfred Edgar Smith - Administrative Assistant, Labor Relations Staff Advisor.
- John W. Whitten - Assistant to Alfred Edgar Smith Correspondence Clerk.
- Leona M. Cobb - Secretary to Alfred Edgar Smith.
- Dorothy I. Embry - Stanographer (A. E. Smith's office.)
- Ellen Beckwith - Typist (A. E. Smith's office.)
- Edward Lawson - Special Assistant, Information Service.
- Viola Holliman - Typist (Edward Lawson, Information Service.)
- James A. Atkins - Specialist in Negro Education, WPA.
- Mabel L. Saunders - Secretary to James A. Atkins.
- Lewis Allen - Statistical Clerk.
- Sterling Brown - Editor, Negro Material Writers' Project.
- Bernard Braxton - Assistant to Sterling Brown.
- Louise A. Boone - Secretary to Sterling Brown.

There are other clerical employees in the mailing division.

Advisory Boards frequently include Negroes in their membership in the various States.