

RAY FISHER ACCEPTS POSITION AS COACH

The Washington Post (1877-1922); Apr 9, 1921;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Washington Post (1877-1997)

pg. 10

RAY FISHER ACCEPTS POSITION AS COACH

Cincinnati, Ohio., April 8.—Pitcher Ray Fisher, telegraphed August Herrmann, president of the Cincinnati National league club today that he had accepted the terms offered to become baseball coach at the University of Michigan and hoped that his resignation from the Reds would be accepted.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.